COLLECTION, USE AND DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The personal information on this form is collected under the authority of the University Act (RSBC 1996, ch.468). I understand that VIU will use and maintain the information for the purposes of admission, registration, student support services, research, administration and reporting requirements, alumni and development, administration of the Student Union Health and Dental plan, and other activities related to delivery of programs, courses, events and recreation by VIU. Note that in providing VIU with an email address you acknowledge that VIU may send confidential information about you to this address, consistent with Section 26 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. VIU's administration calls for creating a digital photo image of each student that is used for purposes of validating the student as a member of the VIU community to gain access to campus services. The personal information will be used to verify the student Personal Education Number (PEN), required by the province of British Columbia, or to assign the PEN to students. The PEN is used to measure participation of the population in the post-secondary sector and for research and evaluation. For individuals admitted to a co-admission program with VIU partner institutions, I understand that all details of my application, studies, and student conduct record will be shared openly between VIU and the partner institution. For individuals granted awards, VIU releases personal information to award donors and provincial funding agencies. In addition, VIU uses the name of the award winners and/or photo images, municipality of residence, VIU program name, and the name or criteria of any award won in marketing materials for the purpose of publicizing VIU students, graduates, and their achievements. Student's names and contact information will also be shared with the VIU Students' Union. The use of this information will be in compliance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. For questions about your personal information use, you may contact VIU's Director, Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy at 900 Fifth Street, Nanaimo, BC, V9R 5S5, or telephone 250-740-6564.

APPLICANT STATEMENT

I certify that all statements on the application are true and complete. I understand that misrepresentation of this information in any material way may result in cancellation of my admission or registration status. I understand that submission of this application in no way guarantees admission to a program or course, and that admission is subject to meeting Vancouver Island University Program or Course prerequisites and space availability. I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of Vancouver Island University as published in the online official Calendar, and those of the department and program in which I shall be registered, and any changes which may be made while I am a student at the University.

Application fees may be subject to change.

Submit Official Transcripts

New applicants to undergraduate programs must submit official transcripts from all institutions. This includes high school and all previous post-secondary institutions. Faxed, scanned or photocopied documents are not considered official. Transcripts become the property of Vancouver Island University and will not be returned. The only exception is where a transcript is deemed to be irreplaceable. If submitting such a document, please request its return at the time of submission.

Current high school students from BC and the Yukon must provide their Personal Education Number (PEN) and may also be required to submit an interim transcript for admission purposes.

New applicants to graduate programs must submit official transcripts from all previous post-secondary institutions. High school transcripts are not required from applicants to graduate programs.

What Happens Next?

Within two weeks of receiving your application, Vancouver Island University will mail you a letter confirming receipt of your application. Please read our letters carefully and call if you have any questions.

If you are admitted to a program, an offer of admission will be mailed to you. A non-refundable, non-transferable deposit (usually $200) will be required to confirm your acceptance of the offer of admission. The due date to accept the offer and pay the deposit will be outlined in the letter of acceptance.

The University considers it to be sufficient notification to mail information to the student's address on file; however, we may also contact you by telephone or email. Please call the Registration Centre to notify us of changes to your contact information.
